The Creative Income Prescription™

A Structured Audit + 30-Day Pinterest Deployment Framework

WHAT YOU'LL WALK AWAY WITH

STRUCTURAL DIAGNOSIS

1 A scored audit of 7 business fundamentals that reveals exactly where your Pinterest strategy is leaking revenue — before you create another pin.

2 30-DAY DEPLOYMENT FRAMEWORK
A week-by-week Pinterest publishing structure organized by function: keyword alignment, visibility, authority, and monetization reinforcement.

3 SEASONAL CANVA CODE INDEX
Ready-to-use Canva element codes organized by month and season — so every pin you build has a design foundation before you open a blank canvas.

By page 8, you'll know exactly what's blocking your revenue — and have a 30-day structure to fix it.

This guide was your diagnosis. Volume 1 is your infrastructure.
When you're ready to build the full system — it's waiting for you.

- ✦ 2,700+Canva codes across all 12 months
- ✦ Seasonal deployment maps
- ✦ Keyword clustering worksheets
- ✦ Offer alignment system
- ✦ Repeatable monthly structure

Build slowly. Build intentionally. Build well.

Your Content Isn't Random. Your Structure Is.

You already create. You already post. You already have ideas.
But without seasonal alignment and deployment structure, your efforts remain disconnected from consistent revenue.

Pinterest does not reward effort. It rewards alignment.

You are not behind. You are unstructured. This prescription helps you identify where the gaps are — and what to do next.

Before we diagnose — let's get clear.

This takes 60 seconds. Write your answers below — then check if they all point to the same thing.

1 My primary monetized offer right now is:

_____

2 The next seasonal moment my audience is moving toward is:

_____

3 The Pinterest content I've been creating mostly points to:

_____

Now look at all three lines. Do they point to the same thing?
If yes — you have alignment. This framework will accelerate it.
If no — you have the gap. This framework will close it.

Structural Audit

Rate each area 1–5. Honest answers only.

This is not a judgment — it is a diagnostic.

	Structural Element	Score (1-5)
☐	I deploy content with a defined monthly offer focus	___
☐	My Pinterest strategy aligns with a monetized asset	___
☐	My offers follow seasonal demand cycles	___
☐	I operate from a structured product ladder	___
☐	My content categories are pre-determined	___
☐	I batch within defined deployment themes	___
☐	My traffic has a clear destination	___

Total Score: _____ / 35

Your Diagnosis

NO JUDGMENT. JUST CLARITY.

Identify where you are. Name it. Then build past it.

Your Archetype	Where You Are Right Now
Fragmented Operator Score: 7–11	You create consistently but without centralized monetization structure. "Every month feels like starting over — I'm posting but nothing is connecting."
Under-Structured Builder Score: 12–17	You have assets but lack seasonal deployment mapping. "I have the content — I just don't know when or how to deploy it for sales."
Semi-Operational Score: 18–27	You need infrastructure refinement for scalability. "I have pieces working but the whole system isn't pulling together yet."
Operational Creator Score: 28–35	Your foundation is solid. Volume 1 scales what's already working. "I'm getting traction — I want to systematize and grow without rebuilding from scratch."

Next Step: Whatever your score, Volume 1 meets you exactly where you are.

Why Pinterest Rewards Structured Creators

Pinterest is not social media.

It is a search engine operating on seasonal demand cycles.

> Without structured keyword alignment and offer integration, traffic does not convert.

Pinterest rewards creators who plan with intention. This means:

- Seasonal content mapped to specific demand windows
- Keywords aligned to your core monetized offer
- A defined destination for every pin you publish

Structure is not a creative limitation. It is a traffic strategy.

Structure turns visibility into revenue.

30-Day Pinterest Deployment Framework

Intentional. Each week serves a distinct function.

Not chaotic. Seasonal. Aligned.

Traffic without direction feels busy.
Structured traffic builds businesses.

Week 1 Keyword Alignment & Offer Mapping	• Define your seasonal focus • Identify 5 aligned keywords • Map your offer connection
Week 2 Visibility Expansion	• 3 Standard Pins • 2 Idea Pins • 1 Conversion Pin
Week 3 Authority Positioning	• 3 Educational Pins • 1 Case Study Angle • 1 Offer Reinforcement
Week 4 Monetization Reinforcement	• 2 Direct Offer Pins • 1 Seasonal Urgency Pin

This is not a content idealist. It is a deployment structure.

Deployment Example

HOW ALIGNMENT WORKS IN PRACTICE

> "I had pins going out every week but nothing was connecting to sales. I didn't need more content — I needed a system."

You Are Not Behind.
You Are Becoming.

You are allowed to build slowly.
You are allowed to build clearly.
You are allowed to build in a way that honors both your creativity and your faith.

"For God is not a God of confusion but of peace." — 1 Corinthians 14:33
Peace in business looks like structure. Structure creates confidence. Confidence creates movement.

The Infrastructure Behind This

What you've experienced in this document is a preview.

The Seasonal Creator Vault provides:

- Categorized deployment themes
- Static and dynamic content sets
- Seasonal monetization alignment frameworks
- A repeatable structure you do not have to rebuild each month

Peace in business comes from clarity.
Clarity comes from structure.
Structure is the prescription.

Your Next Step

If your score indicates structural fragmentation, begin with Volume 1 of The Seasonal Creator Vault. You've been building. This is what you've been building toward.
